

Amanda Pope

SR. ASSOCIATE

amanda@outreachstrategists.com

EXPERIENCE OVERVIEW

Amanda is a Legislative Research Associate with Outreach Strategists. She is responsible for social media strategies and content creation as well as expanding operations across a number of online platforms and media. Through the preparation and commissioning of material for publication, Amanda helps craft messages and develop outreach plans for clients.

Amanda has a degree in Political Science and Psychology from Rice University, with wide political experience across the state of Texas. Amanda has experience both working on a number of campaigns in Texas well as experience working within Houston City Council.

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

- Houston City Council | June - August 2016, Spring Semester 2017

Conductive legislative research on policy initiatives, analyzed and summarized policy briefs, and worked as event aid for At-Large city representative.

- Common Cause Texas | June - December 2017

Wrote and produced legislative explainer videos, authored and created web content, handled various social media platform. Was involved in research and content for:

- San Antonio Independent Ethics Board
- Pasadena Independent Citizen Redistricting Commission
- First Vote website
- Fair Maps Texas microsite

- Beto O'Rourke Senate Campaign | August - November 2018

Recruited and trained volunteers to host canvassing and phone banking events, supervised statewide teams of volunteers, and managed multiple volunteer-run popup office spaces.