

Mark Solano

SR. MANAGER

mark@outreachstrategists.com

EXPERIENCE OVERVIEW

Mark has worked in public affairs, communications, political, and public health policy for more than 7 years. During his time with Outreach Strategists he has worked on a wide range of issues including stakeholder engagement, communications support, and legislative advocacy with a focus on public health programming. Before joining Outreach Strategists Mark served as the Communications and Engagement Specialist for Harris County Public Health. Mark holds a bachelor's in political science with minors in national security studies and history and a master's in policy & public administration.

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

- Bayou City Initiative | March 2018

Assessed the health and social impacts of social determinants of health related to disaster recovery and resilience, specifically in underserved communities across Harris County.

- American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) | May 2018

Developed and published the AARP Age-Friendly Livable Communities Plan. Provide ongoing support of implementation by engaging stakeholders and institutions. Provide communication support including the organizing of multiple tele-townhalls with AARP members. Assisted in the development of the Health and Community Support Domain including the creation of policy and stakeholder staffing.

- Harris County Attorney's Office | December 2019

Provide stakeholder engagement and convene community leaders to discuss cancer cluster site in Fifth Ward/ Kashmere Gardens. Develop outreach strategies to engage underserved areas within Harris County. Engage and educate stakeholders on the services provided and responsibilities of the Harris County Attorney's Office.

- Be Covered | 2019

Assisted in developing coalition of community partners to spread awareness of healthcare coverage options. Specifically outreach to underserved communities across Harris County.